NORTHWEST SUFFER UNLESS COAL IS MOVED

Six States Where Winter Sets in Early Are Without Fuel.

PEOPLE WILL FREEZE

Representative of Northwest Says People Will Suffer.

Washington, August 30 .- A winter of suffering that, in prospect can be compared only with the experiences of soviet Russia, stares in the faces of 9,000,000 people in six northwestern states, as cold weather approaches. Coal bins are empty in Wisconin, Minneota, Iowa, North and South Dakota and Montana, and supplies so far shipped are pitifully inadequate.

This was the declaration today of Donald Conn, chairman of the committee representing the governors of these states who is in Washington working to get fuel started for ports on the great lakes in time to be transported by water to the great docks at the head of Lake Superior for distribution.

"I cannot put it too strongly," said Conn today. 'People in the northwest will be freezing to death this winter if coal is not moved at once in large quantities.

"If disaster is to be averted." he added, "a million tons of coal must be dumped each week at lake ports before the clost of lake navigation about Dec. 1. The only hope for the northwest is for the intention. northwest is for the interstate commerce commission to force coal into lake ports regardless of everything but railroads and public utilities.

Last year, according to Conn. 11 .-913,714 tons of bituminous coal and 1,943,783 tons of anthracite were shipped to Lake Superior ports for distribution to the north west states. Up to August 21 of this year, 1,913, 954 tons of bituminous and about 10,000 tons of anthracite had been

He has a severe cut on the head, having been struck a glancing blow when "the big man with a straw hat" crashed the bar against the head of the Nola woman. Police are looking for Joseph Nola, 25, Italian workman, husband of Mary, from whom she had been estranged for several months. To Patrolman G. Lenz, Armstrong, with blood flowing down his face, unfolded some details of what police believe to be Canton's most harrowing crime.

Lenz was walking on Market Ave., about 2 o'clock this morning when he saw a staggering man, holding his head about to enter the hotel lobby. The officer hastened to him and grabbing him by the arm, demanded to know what the trouble was. For fully five minutes the bleeding man, who proved to be Armstrong stared at him. Then he gasped out the news of the triple murder. Lenz located Pitrolman William Dabosky and then notified police headquarters. The two officers commandeered a passing automoblie, put Armstrong into the tonneau and sped to the Burns home. Entering by the rear door of the entire house being in inky blackness the nude bdy of Mrs. Burn's lying on a bed, the pillow and mattress of which were soaked with blood. At the foot of the bed was the body of the Nola woman, her head battered almost to a pulp. Smelling smoke Lenz rushed into another bedroom, here he found smouldering a pile of paper and rags evidence that the murderer had attempted to conceal the traces of the crime by burning down the house. The officers stamped out the fire.

Wednesday forenoon, he started to turn off the Columbus pike into the Kendall road, opposite Wilberforce University, to make his customary route into Xenia. Just as he was making the turn the highwayman ran from the bushes at the side of the road leaped upon the running board of the automobile, and covering Rall, with a revolver, ordered him to turn over his money. Two Women and Man Victims in City's Most Horrowing Crime.

Canton, O., Aug. 30 .- A fiend in human form, armed with an iron bar. beat two women and a man to death in their log cabin home at 1200 Gonder Avenue, S. E., at 1:30 o'clock this morning, attempted to murder another man and then set fire to the

The fiend's victims: Frank Burns, 27, a laborer; Freda Burns, 26, Frank's wife, Mrs. Mary Nola, 21. Luther Armstrong, 22, at whom the fiend aimed a death blow with the heavy iron bar, is being held in the city prison on suspicion. He has a severe cut on the head, having been struck a glancing blow when "the big man with a straw hat" crashed the bar against the head of the Nola woman. Police are looking for Joseph Nola, 25, Italian workman, husband of Mary, from whom she had been estranged for several months.

To Patrolman G. Lenz, Armstrong, with blood flowing down his face, unfolded some details of what police believe to be Canton's most harrowing crime. Lenz was walking on Market Ave.,

about 2 o'clock this morning when he saw a staggering man, bolding his head about to enter the hotel lobby. The officer hastened to him and grabbing him by the arm, demanded to know what the trouble was. For fully five minutes the bleeding man, who proved to be Armstrong stared at him. Then he gasped out the news of the triple murder. Lenz located Pitrolman William Dabosky and then notified police headquarters. The two officers commandeered a passing automoblie, put Armstrong into the tonneau and sped to the Burns home. Entering by the rear door of the dingy log cabin, the patrolmen found Burns lying on the kitchen floor, the entire house being in inky blackness. Going into a bedroom they found the nude bdy of Mrs. Burn's lying on the foot of the bed was the body of the Nola woman, her head battered almost to a pulp.

Smelling smoke Lenz rushed into another bedroom, here he found smouldering a pile of paper and rags evidence that the murderer had attempted to conceal the traces of the crime by burning down the house. The officers stamped out the fire.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney trouble and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys-well, read what an Xenia woman says:

Mrs. Hannah A. Reed, 520 W. Second St., says: "There were times got severe stabs of pain through my back, and I could hardly rise again, my back was so stiff. When I got up mornings I was lame and tired. My back throbbed in the morning just as if I had been pounded with a club. My kidneys were irregular in action and caused me annoyance. Colds settled on my kidneys and this started my trouble. About three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which were highly recommended to me, relieved me of those pains in my back. My kidneys became normal and regular in every way."

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney trouble and backache. Colds overtax the Kinneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys-well, read what an Xenia woman says:

Mrs. Hannah A. Reed, 520 W. Second St., says: "There were times when I stooped while washing that I got severe stabs of pain through my back, and I could hardly rise again, my back was so stiff. When I got up mornings I was lame and tired. My back throbbed in the morning just as if I had been pounded with a club. My kidneys were irregular in action and caused me annoyance. Colds settled on my kidneys and this started my trouble. About three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, which were highly recommended to me, relieved me of those pains in my back. My kidneys became normal and regular in every way." 60c, at all dealers. Foster-Milbura

HOUSECLEANING DAYS

Call for Preparedness

THERE'S nothing worse than getting right into the middle of a housecleaning mess and then discovering that you haven't the proper brushes to get into the awkward corners, or a step ladder to get at the high places, or something else of the kind. In fact, with the proper accessories, you can work more systematically and there needn't be any mess.

VACUUM Cleaners for rugs and with special attachments for draperies and cushions make housecleaning much less of a bugaboo. And this modern workman is so dependable—turn on the electric switch and it's at your service.

METHODIST CONFERENCE AT DAYTON THIS WEEK.

September is the great month for the annual Methodist Conferences of this region, but the West Ohio Conference to which the two Xenia churches belong will open a few days earlier, in August. The tenth session will be held Wednesday, August 30 to Tuesday, September 4 in Grace Church, Dayton, with Bishop William F. Anderson presiding. The program, as it is arranged, looks good; and as we hear, some of the services are to be held out doors on the spacious lawns surrounding the church, the session should rest and refresh, as well as inspire this coming communion of the ministers.

Dr. Ralph Diffendorfer and Dr. M. P. Burns will give illustrated lectures Wednesday and Thursday nights, after introductory musical concerts. Friday night the Epworth League delegations will celebrate, with Dr. Dan Brummitt as speaker. Saturday night will emphasize life service, with Miss Jessie Arbuckle and the moving picture film, "A Maker of Men," presenting the message. Sunday night Bishop Theodore S. Henderson

The Laymen's Conference will meet Friday at 2 P. M. in Riverdale Methodist Church to hear addresses by the Hon. Simeon D. Fess, Mrs. F. I. Johnson, Hon. John W. Winn, and others. The meeting will continue Saturday morning.

Next Sunday morning, September 4th, the services are in Memorial Hall, with love feast at 9:30 and morning worship at 10:30, at which Bishop William F. Anderson will preach. All the Methodist Churches of Dayton will unite in this service, and it should be the burden of the prayers of the churches that this service and the entire Conference session may open the windows of heaven and send the men home with a spiritual blessing long to be of service to their people.

Grace Church was so recently dedicated, that little needs to be said about the fine architecture, efficient arrangements, and beautiful surroundings of this magnificent church. The membership is 1,215, as reported in the Minutes of last year.

The pastor is the Rev. Charles W. Brashares, the son of a Methodist minister. He was born at Williamsport, Ohio, graduated from the Lancaster high school in 1909, from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1914, and from Boston University School of Theology in 1917. He spent an extra year there and at Harvard University. Mrs. Brashares is an alumnus of Welleley, class of 1916. Two little boys keep the household lively, one reaching this world only last spring. Rev. Brashares is rapidly winning his way not only into the life of this great church, but also into that of the city of Dayton and of the district.

The West Ohio Conference, to which the Xenia churches belong, is a very large one, made up of two former Conferences a few years ago, and reaches from Toledo on the north to Cincinnati on the south, practically all the west half of Ohio. It embraces nine Districts as follows: Cincinnati, Dayton, Defiance, Delaware, Finley, Hillsboro, Lima, Springfield and Toledo, each of which is presided over by a District Superintendent, formerly called Presiding Elders.

The two Xenia churches are not feeling as much interest in this Conference as usual, owing to the fact that it is an almost certainty that their present pastors will be returned for the coming year, in accordance with the unanimous desire of their church membership

METHODIST CONFERENCE AT DAYTON THIS WEEK.

September is the great month for the annual Methodist Conferences of this region, but the West Ohio Conference to which the two Xenia churches belong will open a few days earlier, in August. The tenth session will be held Wednesday, August 30 to Tuesday, September 4 in Grace Church, Dayton, with Bishop William F. Anderson presiding. The program, as it is arranged, looks good; and as we hear, some of the services are to be held out doors on the spacious lawns surrounding the church, the session should rest and refresh, as well as inspire this coming communion of the ministers.

Dr. Ralph Diffendorfer and Dr. M. P. Burns will give illustrated lectures Wednesday and Thursday nights, after introductory musical concerts. Friday night the Epworth League delegations will celebrate, with Dr. Dan Brummitt as speaker. Saturday night will emphasize life service, with Miss Jessie Arbuckle and the moving picture film, "A Maker of Men," presenting the message. Sunday night Bishop Theodore S. Henderson will preach.

The Laymen's Conference will meet Friday at 2 P. M. in Riverdale Methodist Church to hear addresses by the Hon. Simeon D. Fess, Mrs. F. I. Johnson, Hon. John W. Winn, and others. The meeting will continue Saturday morning.

Next Sunday morning, September 4th, the services are in Memorial Hall, with love feast at 9:30 and morning worship at 10:30, at which Bishop William F. Anderson will preach. All the Methodist Churches of Dayton will unite in this service, and it should be the burden of the prayers of the churches that this service and the entire Conference session may open the windows of heaven and send the men home with a spiritual blessing long to be of service to their people.

Grace Church was so recently dedicated, that little needs to be said about the fine architecture, efficient arrangements, and beautiful surroundings of this magnificent church. The membership is 1,215, as reported in the Minutes of last year.

The pastor is the Rev. Charles W. Brashares, the son of a Methodist minister. He was born at Williamsport, Ohio, graduated from the Lancaster high school in 1909, from Ohio Wesleyan University in 1914, and from Boston University School of Theology in 1917. He spent an extra year there and at Harvard University. Mrs. Brashares is an alumnus of Welleley, class of 1916. Two little boys keep the household lively, one reaching this world only last spring. Rev. Brashares is rapidly winning his way not only into the life of this great church, but also into that of the city of Dayton and of the district.

The West Ohio Conference, to which the Xenia churches belong, is a very large one, made up of two former Conferences a few years ago, and reaches from Toledo on the north to Cincinnati on the south, practically all the west half of Ohio. It embraces nine Districts as follows: Cincinnati, Dayton, Defiance, Delaware, Finley, Hillsboro, Lima, Springfield and Toledo, each of which is presided over by a District Superintendent, formerly called Presiding Elders.

The two Xenia churches are not feeling as much interest in this Conference as usual, owing to the fact that it is an almost certainty that their present pastors will be returned for the coming year, in accordance with the unanimous desire of their church membership

Columbus, Aug. 30.-After taking a look at the field of entries John E. Smith, of East Liverpool, came near deciding that his holstein bull, King Ormsby Maudyke would have no chance in the judging ring at the Ohic state fair yesterday. Finally, after persuasion, he entered his animal, in the race.

He then stood by and saw his entry, King Ormsby Maudyke come through as the prize holstein of the 1922 Ohio state fair. His entry won over a choice field of 20 competitors, including Ormsby Pietje Mercedes from the Ohio state university stock barns, winner of the 1921 championship in that class at the fair and Charlesvoix Marbury, winner at the Michigan state fair last year.

ATTENDANCE AT FAIR

Columbus, Aug. 30 .- Treatening skies in the morning and a drizzling rain in the afternoon failed to stop thousands of visitors from attending the Ohio State fair, Tuesday, but did cause re-adjusting of the many events scheduled for that day. But four heats of the horse races scheduled could be run off, Judges brought finally calling it a day when the one track became too slippery for safety to the drivers. Rain also eliminated

Fair weather early this morning brought long vanguards of visitors to the state fair gates, indicating that a record crowd will pass through the turnstiles today.

Tuesday's official attendance fig-Today's program is as follows:

9 a. m .- Judging of cattle, swine

9 a. m .- Dog show opens 1, p. m .- Horse races. 2 p. m.—Baby contest.

2 p. m.-Grange reunion.

DETECTIVE SHOT BY UNKNOWN MAN IN DAYTON R. R. YARDS

James W. Adams, 25, employed as special detective by the B. and O. Railroad in the Dayton yards, was shot three times in the right arm and left hand by an unknown assailant Tuesday night. He is at the Miami Valley Hospital. His condition is not Adams was guarding the bridge over the river near the City Railway power house when the shooting occured. While seated on a pile of ties, he was approached by a man who asked him if he had seen any one pass recently. Adams answered him, and as he did so the man remarked, "You look like a hold-up man to me," pulled a gun and fired. The bullet struck Adams in the right arm just above the elbow.
